The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, JULY 11th, 1890.

SOME opposition has been raised, we understand, to the granting of the site of the Public Gardens at Happy Valley to the proposed Athletic Club. The ground on which objection is taken is that the Club is to be a private one, to which admission is to be obtained only by ballot, whereas, it is contended, the site ought to be set apart for the use of the public. It will no doubt be argued that the Club will be of a very broad and cosmopolitan character, and we believe it is intended that the grounds shall always be open to the public, for whose accommodation seats are to be provided, but the use of the running track, tennis courts, pavilion, &c., will of course be confined to members only. If membership were open to all, well and good, but the ballot constitutes the Club's private one, and the granting of public land to private clubs in a matter that deserves very careful consideration. The Government has been somewhat liberal in this respect in past years. A very valuable piece of land was given in perpetuity to the Ladies' Recreational Club, a very private and select institution, which has never claimed any public charter.

It may seem ungrateful to raise any question where ladies concerned, but we must confess we cannot see what more right the Government had to give that land to a small number of ladies than it would have had to give it to any particular individual. Some years ago, too, it was proposed to set well-night half the island apart as a game preserve for the benefit of a few gentlemen of sporting propensities, and an Ordinance was actually passed for that purpose, but the scheme collapsed owing to the hon. secretary running away with the money, an ending which was not altogether inappropriate to such a business.

The case of the Athletic Club is somewhat different from those we have mentioned, in asmuch as the institution would benefit a much larger section of the community and the ground would be open to the public as a place of resort, though this, it may be misconceived, is not specifically provided for in the Draft rules. When the Victoria Recreational Club was established, Sir ARTHUR KENNEDY granted the site on the express condition that the institution was to be open to all classes of the community, and the rules of admission are that any person becomes a member by being posted for a month, unless a ballot is specially demanded. As a matter of fact we believe there have not been half a dozen ballots in the course of all the years the Club has existed. The lease would only be for a short term and the rent therefore would in any case not be a killing matter. But whatever the particular form of settlement arrived at may be, the Athletic Club cannot be allowed to fall through.

We understand that the time when the Victoria

Recreational Club would not object to the Athlete Club is when the lease is granted.
